Gentlemen:

On May 31 and June 1, the Westborough Police Explorers are sponsoring the first annual New England Police Exposition. Its purpose is to give the public a broad perspective of the business of law enforcement. At this time, some fifty law enforcement agencies in New England and Canada have been contacted, and twenty police equipment companies and dealers have also been notified.

We are in the hopes that your Law Enforcement Agency will be able to contribute to this effort in the form of a manned exhibit. Our request for your particular organization is in our accompanying letter. If you feel that the request we have made is unsuitable, please inform us to that effect, and include a description of an exhibit which might be better suited to your department.

Please respond as promptly as possible due to the fact that we are holding off major advertising until we have a better overall picture of what is to be expected. If you reply to this letter in the affirmative, we will immediately send you further detailed information. Special arrangements will be made for out-of-state participants if needed.

Please address replies or requests for further information to:

Westborough Police Explorer Post #924
Post Office Box #531
Westborough, Massachusetts 01581.

Sincerely yours,

David W. Farland

David W. Farland

Enclosure: We have no special request for your agency but are genuinely looking forward to your affirmative reply.
